

Screen Printing

Screen printing is the most traditional and trusted method of garment customization on the market today. Chances are, the graphic T-shirts you already love have been printed using this method! Screen printing is an art form that requires practice, dedication, and the right equipment to master. We pride ourselves on customizing garments with the highest quality screen prints. Whether you need 36 T-shirts, 5000 hoodies, or anything in between, rest assured that every single print from Chicago Signs and Screen Printing will be vibrant, durable, and soft to the touch

MONEY SAVING TIPS:

Choose a Standard Product

Choosing a garment from our Standard line is the simplest way to save money when ordering custom apparel. The Standard catalog includes budget friendly products that remain a popular choice for all customers. Enjoy picks from quality brands like Hanes, Gildan, and Fruit of the Loom.

Plan Ahead

We offer quantity discounts on screen printed products. If you are buying t-shirts for your business, organization, school, or alike, consider ordering bulk up front to save money later! Standard turnaround is 5-7 workings days, orders needing quicker turnaround may accrue rush fees.

Artwork Made Simple

The general rule of thumb when quoting artwork for screen printing is, the more colors in your design the more the print will cost. Why is that? More colors for your design means more work for your t-shirt, so consider reducing the number of colors in your art-work to save money!
